

4 January 1967

Mr. Hayes Redmon
Staff Assistant to the President
Room 100
Executive Office Building

Dear Hayes:

Attached is the xerox copy of Dr. Pham Van Huyen's card which you sent me. The message scribbled thereon translates as follows:

"A friend has told me all the news about you.
I extend my greetings and the best of health to you. I hope that soon we can meet and talk over old times and joke with each other."

Geneva 5-12-60
(signature illegible)

There is no indication whom the "you" in this message is intended to refer to, nor is it clear who is the antecedent of "I". The signature does not seem to be Huyen's.

Sincerely yours,

George A. Carver, Jr.
